

WEEKLY THOUGHTS - SEPTEMBER 18, 2020

Dearly Beloved,

Greetings to you in the name of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ!

September 20, First Sunday after the Feast of the Cross

Gospel Reading, St Mark 13:28-37 RSV

28 “From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. 29 So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. 30 Truly, I say to you, this generation will not pass away before all these things take place. 31 Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away. 32 “But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. 33 Take heed, watch; for you do not know when the time will come. 34 It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his servants in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. 35 Watch therefore—for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or in the morning— 36 lest he come suddenly and find you asleep. 37 And what I say to you I say to all: Watch.”

Reflections

Salvation has two dimensions or two aspects. One is its earthly experience and the other in eternity. God is Spirit. To experience God is more to happen in spirit. Humans have the physical existence on earth with spiritual faculty as inevitable part of it whereas the everlasting existence begins when we leave our material body and become pure spirit. Many more things occur in the celestial realm than in the physical. Celestial doesn't imply a particular location, rather another level and form of existence. Like every season has its fall, human life also has its fall and span. It has to start and to finish passing through various stages of progress. Christ the Saviour has come to this world to reveal the life in its fullness. He had cared for both physical and spiritual aspects. He healed the sick, emotionally supported the needy, elevated their minds through his wisdom words, intervened to occasions where justice and equality had to be maintained, commanded forces of nature to reveal Divine authority on everything and accepted death to rise up victorious spiritually over human physical limitations.

Life is to be more envisioned and planned based on signs. We could educate children more efficiently based on signs of their talents and skills. Signs mean, something is there but not fully revealed or actualised. Cough can be sign of infection or presence of some irritants. Whatever could be the reason, after seeing a sign, it would need further following up. Here Jesus is indicating the signs of end of days or fullness of time. As humans, being the children of God, we cannot neglect signs, rather we follow them. Human life is not just a physical growth but it has a divine purpose to be fulfilled. Before we end, we need to attain full bloom which would be possible only through three dimensional growing, physical, mental and spiritual. Our ultimate existence will be spiritual. Culmination of life happens when we receive God into its fullness of human capacity. Salvation transcend time and space. That is why it is called end of age. We grow beyond all kinds of material influences including earthly fame, victory, sorrows, illness, natural calamities and even death. All the bad signs in the world are to be used by the children of God to transcend them and to reach the spiritual realm. It is given for us as a gift to recognise the Lord's immediate presence with us. There will end the old age of miseries and sorrows and will dawn the new age of complete acceptance of God in everyone's life. Christ advises that we may be vigilant to recognise this great shift.

108th Anniversary of establishing of Catholicate in Malankara

On September 15, Malankara Church has observed the 108th anniversary of establishment of Catholicate. With this, the Malankara church in India had started enjoying all the rights and privileges of an autocephalous community. Till then, our church had to seek assistance from other orthodox churches especially from the Antiochene church for consecrating bishops. The Indian church, though founded in the first century, had no patriarchs. We had only arch deacons and Malankara Metropolitans. Since the inception in 1912, Malankara church always had Catholicate in position like the Pope of Rome or Patriarchs of other churches. Establishment of Catholicate remain the strongest symbol of autocephalous character of the church.
